Project Description

According to the IADB, the objective of this TC is to generate and disseminate specialized knowledge and applied evidence to inform the design, implementation, and evaluation of pension reforms aimed at improving the sustainability, coverage, and equity of pension systems in Latin America and the Caribbean. The specific objectives are to: (i) generate comparative evidence to inform the design, implementation, and evaluation of pension policies and reforms aimed at strengthening sustainability, expanding coverage, improving benefit adequacy, and promoting greater equity in pension systems, with particular attention to informal workers, women, and other traditionally excluded groups; (ii) systematize experiences and lessons learned on governance, regulation, supervision, and institutional modernization to inform efforts to strengthen the capacities of the institutions responsible for pension systems across the region; and (iii) promote regional cooperation, the exchange of experiences, and peer learning to facilitate the dissemination of good practices in the design and management of pension systems across the region.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
