Project Description

Contribute to closing the existing gaps in the labor market, between the supply of human capital that graduates from training processes in technology, and the industry demand for workers, which is particularly relevant for people seeking their first job, and more relevant among young people and women, through the creation, consolidation and expansion of a sustainable and scalable "workertech" platform, which provides the possibility of having a first virtual work experience (through nano-experiences) and provides other types of services to these platform workers.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IADB

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IIC)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IIC is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici.1752.html (in English) or http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici.1752.html (Spanish).
