The loan will be used to support the expansion of the small- and medium-sized enterprise (SME), women-led SME and green portfolios of Banco Agricola. By growing the portfolios, the Project aims at contributing to improve the overall access to financing of such segments in El Salvador. To achieve this, we are seeking to strengthen Banco Agricola's capital base and thus supporting the Bank's portfolio growth strategy, which includes the target segments. In addition, the financial support is expected to be completed with technical assistance to improve the Bank's abilities and knowledge in serving the women-led SME segment.
