Project Description

Texila American University, Guyana("Texila") is a private University based in Guyana offering programs in Medicine, Public Health, Business Management and Information Technology. It was established in 2010 and was registered with the National Accreditation Council of Guyana (NACG). Texila is Accredited by the Caribbean Accreditation Authority for Education in Medicine and other Health Professions (CAAM-HP) and the Accreditation Commission on Colleges of Medicine (ACCM)

This expansion of the campus consists of the construction of living accommodations for their students and staff (the "Project"). The student hostel will be constructed on the University's existing premises at Providence and the staff housing will be built at Ellenville approximately 2km from the campus. Under the proposed financing IDB Invest will lend up to US$5 Million.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IDB / IDB INVEST

The Independent Consultation and Investigation Mechanism (MICI) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who have been or are likely to be adversely affected by an Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) or Inter-American Investment Corporation (IDB Invest)-funded project. If you submit a complaint to MICI, they may assist you in addressing the problems you raised through a dispute-resolution process with those implementing the project and/or through an investigation to assess whether the IDB or IDB Invest is following its own policies for preventing or mitigating harm to people or the environment. You can submit a complaint by sending an email to MICI@iadb.org. You can learn more about the MICI and how to file a complaint at <http://www.iadb.org/en/mici/mici,1752.html> (in English) or <http://www.iadb.org/es/mici/mici,1752.html> (Spanish).
