Project Description

The Central American Mezzanine Infrastructure Fund II LP (“CAMIF II” or the “Fund”) is a follow-on fund to the existing CAMIF fund (“Fund I”), in which IFC is currently an investor. Like Fund I, CAMIF II is a 12 year mezzanine Fund that will invest in operating and new (brownfield and greenfield) medium-sized companies/projects in infrastructure and related sectors in Central America, the Caribbean, Mexico and Colombia. The Fund will make subordinated long-term US dollar loans, with current coupon and equity participation features as well as straight equity investments. The Fund will be managed by a subsidiary of LAP Latin American Partners LLC (“LAP”). A first closing of US$80-150M is expected in November 2013 and a second closing reaching the target amount of $250M is expected up to one year later.

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

Private Actors Description

According to Pitchbook, Central American Mezzanine Infrastructure Fund II is a mezzanine fund managed by Latin American Partners. The fund is located in Mexico City, Mexico. The Fund focuses on traditional infrastructure, such as power (generation, transmission, distribution, and renewable energy), transportation (railroads, toll roads, airports, ports, cargo terminals, and other logistics), telecommunication, and water & sanitation. In addition, CAMIF II can invest in natural resources (including agribusiness and other selected sub-sectors), health & education, and other sectors such as housing, real estate, industrial parks, manufacturing, and tourism.

Founded in 2008, Latin American Partners is an infrastructure investment firm based in Washington, District of Columbia. The firm has regional offices based in Mexico City, Mexico, and Tegucigalpa, Honduras. The firm focuses on middle-market growth-stage infrastructure companies based in Latin America and the Caribbean.
