Project Description

The proposed project aims to provide an equity investment in Producers Savings Bank Corporation (“Producers Bank” or the “Bank”) through subscription in newly issued common equity shares of up to PHP510 million (approximately US$11.1 million) or a 19.99% stake to support its expansion strategy to provide more financing and services to SMEs and agriculture sector in the rural areas of the Philippines through organic growth and acquisitions.

Expected Development Impacts

- Agri-Finance: Producers Bank is one of the few banks in the country who has a strong platform to reach the agri-sector. The Bank has strong reach in the rural areas and is planning to expand into the underserved areas of the country. The Bank's strategy is in line with the strategy of WBG and the local government.
- SME: Increased access to finance is indispensable to grow the competitiveness of SMEs. The proposed investment will help Producers Bank accelerate its plans to address the funding gap to SMEs.

Investment Description

- International Finance Corporation (IFC)

Producers Savings Bank Corporation (formerly Producers Rural Banking Corporation) was founded on November 1995, then known as Producers Rural Bank of San Jose City (N.E.). The Bank became a thrift bank in September 2010. As of end-2015, it has 126 operating branches strategically located in key cities and municipalities all over the country (in Metro Manila and 30 provinces). The Bank's main shareholder is Mr. Andres M. Cornejo, Founder, Chairman and CEO, who has a 94.2% ownership of the Bank. The remaining 5.8% is owned by other nominees and directors of the Bank.

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.
