Project Description

According to IFC website, IFC proposes to invest up to US$20 mn through subscription of Non-Convertible Debentures issued by Aavas Financiers Limited (AFL), formerly known as Au Housing Finance Limited. The proceeds of proposed IFC's financing will be utilized by AFL for supporting affordable housing finance for purchase / construction & extension of house to individual under low and medium income group in Rajasthan (a low income state) and nearby 5 states. AFL's customers include dairy farmers, carpenters, garment traders, artisans, etc. Currently, almost 65% of AFL's customers are self-employed.

1. Increased housing finance access in Low Income States: AFL is focused on providing access to housing finance to low-mid income borrowers in tier II /tier III/tier IV and peripheries of tier I cities, with 57% of its outstanding book in the low income states of Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh.
2. Increased housing finance access to self-employed and low income segment: AFL is focused on providing access to housing finance to low income borrowers, specifically those employed in the informal sector such as self-employed micro-entrepreneurs and un-organized sector salaried workers.
3. Job Creation: There is high demand for affordable housing, particularly in rural and semi-urban areas. The expansion of housing finance has a trickledown effect on job creation through the growth of the multiple industries

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org. You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org/>
