Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the Nairobi-Nakuru-Mau Summit Highway PPP is one of the first road projects to be developed under a PPP framework in Kenya. It is a brownfield expansion and upgrade of an inter-urban highway system that has been tendered pursuant to a 30-year design, build, finance, operate, maintain and transfer contract with the Kenya National Highway Administration ("KeNHA"). The Project involves:

1. The dualling, into a four-lane dual carriageway of a portion of A8 Highway between Rironi and Mau Summit, including operation and maintenance; and
2. The strengthening of A8-South Highway between Rironi and Naivasha, including operation and maintenance.

The project company is Rift Valley Highway Limited, which is a consortium led by Vinci Highways, a leading concessions firm in the world, and Meridiam, a global investor and asset manager, both headquartered in Paris, France.
