Project Description

According to the IFC, the proposed project shall support the small and medium-enterprise (“SME”) lending activities of REDAsset Gestao de Recursos Ltda. in Brazil. This will be done through the acquisition of senior quotas of RED Performance FIDC NP, a debt fund managed by REDAsset.

People Affected By This Project

The most significant, expected Project-level outcome is the increased capital market funding for the underserved SME segment through the growth of a FIDC instrument that finances SMEs, as follows:

Stakeholders - Increased capital market funding opportunities for SMEs as Originators: IFC anticipates that the Project will increase access to finance for Brazilian SMEs, helping to address the SME finance gap through a capital markets solution.

Stakeholders - Increased access to finance for MSMEs as Obligors: By acquiring receivables from the originators, the Fund contributes to the financial health of the supply-chain. With more funding available, originators are better positioned to sustain its growth and the growth of its clients, the obligors.

Market Creation - Competitiveness: Beyond the Project, IFC anticipates that this investment has the potential to promote greater market competitiveness through the following aspects: (i) the structural change through the increase in alternative financing opportunities for MSMEs, and (ii) the diversification of investment opportunities in the capital markets in Brazil.

- International Finance Corporation (IFC)

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares.
