Project Description

BIM Land Joint Stock Company (BIM Land) is a Vietnamese Hotel, Resort and Residential building developer operating in both Vietnam, and Lao Peoples Democratic Republic (Lao PDR).

The company is a privately-owned entity registered in Vietnam and is a subsidiary of BIM Group Limited Company (BIM Group), one of Vietnam's largest privately-owned groups with interests in energy, agribusiness, tourism, and residential new town development.

IFC shall provide a US$ 100 million loan to BIM Land in the expansion of its tourism portfolio for the construction of three hotels/serviced apartments as one Intercontinental hotel in Ha Long Vietnam, one Holiday Inn in Vientiane Lao PDR, one Citadines serviced apartments and water theme park in Phu Quoc Island Vietnam.

The funds will be used by three project-specific subsidiaries, being:

- Ha Long Production Development and Investment Company Limited (BIM Ha Long);
- BIM Kien Giang Company Limited (BIM Kien Giang, located in Phu Quoc); and
- Vientiane Investment and Development Co., Ltd (BIM Laos, and collectively known as the project subsidiaries).

The development of hotels and resorts includes:

- Initial identification of projects and formation of a project team;
- Identification of a suitable operator/partner;
- Design based on operator standards and needs;
- Environmental assessment and building permitting;
- Construction and commissioning; and
- Hand over to the operator.

Each project subsidiary remains the legal entity for the project and responsible for compliance to local regulations and laws. As such the project subsidiary maintains all legally required contracts and agreements, such as employment contracts, and statutory environmental reporting. The project subsidiary manages the supporting infrastructure for the project.
