Project Description

According to the Bank's website, this project provides financing to Indorama Agro, an Uzbek subsidiary of Indorama Corporation, to help "introduce to the country modern technologies of cotton production, establish modern cultivation and mechanical harvesting of cotton to provide materials to its local plant, Indorama Kokand Textile." The project finances the development of cotton farm clusters in two regions of Uzbekistan.

The Bank's website also states that the project strives to decrease the risk of forced labor in cotton farming.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org. You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org/>
