Project Description

According to IFC website, The Project aims to fund the growth of Sogebank's subsidiary, Société Générale de Solidarité S.A., the largest microfinance institution (MFI) in the country and another existing IFC client, to support Sogesol's lending program to small enterprises in Haiti, including to agri-enterprises in rural areas.

The project is expected to have strong development impact in terms of:

- (1) supporting the growth of the productive sectors of the Haitian economy by expanding and increasing access to finance to small enterprises.
- (2) promoting growth in agribusiness, a key economic sector representing 22% of GDP. It is estimated that only 28% of farmers have bank accounts and 19% received a credit for agricultural purposes
- (3) strengthening the Haitian financial sector's competitiveness through capacity building, demonstration and replication channels.

People Affected By This Project

The project is expected to have strong development impact in terms of: (1) supporting the growth of the productive sectors of the Haitian economy by expanding and increasing access to finance to small enterprises. ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org. You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org/>
