Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the proposed project entails up to US$40 million IFC A Loan investment in a syndicated senior blue loan for Bank of Qingdao ("BQD"). IFC will also mobilize other investors through IFC syndication. The proceeds of the blue loan will be on-lent to projects in line with IFC's Blue Bond Criteria which BQD has developed as part of its own framework for blue financing with IFC's assistance. The project will be one of the first blue loans in Asia and in the world, and will help China demonstrate its commitment to addressing the challenges of marine litter in other Asian countries, where the product may be replicated.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: <https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries>

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
