Private Actors Description

From the IFC's website:

DenizBank is the 5th largest private bank in Türkiye by total consolidated assets as of end of December 2022. The Bank is 100% owned by Emirates NBD following the acquisition from Sberbank in July 2019. Together with its subsidiaries, Deniz Bank AG (Austria) and CJSC Deniz Bank (Russia), DenizBank functions as a fully commercial independent bank with services across the region. DenizBank's operations in Türkiye are the key driver of the consolidated business with 670 branches in Türkiye (and one offshore branch in Bahrain), accounting for 84% of total assets as of end of December 2022. Deniz Bank AG with 13 branches in Austria and 7 in Germany accounted for 18% of total assets as of end of December 2022 while the Russian subsidiary accounts for less than 1% of total assets. The Bank has a diversified loan portfolio across various sectors. Tourism and agriculture are priority sectors for the Bank and account for the top two sector concentrations comprising 10% and 7% respectively of its performing loan portfolio as of end of December 2022.
