Project Description

According to the bank website, the project includes a senior loan package of up to US$20 million equivalent comprising of: (i) a senior unsecured 3-year loan (incl. 1-year grace period) for the amount of up to US$10 million on IFC's own account (A Loan) or UZS equivalent, (ii) a senior unsecured 3-year loan (incl. 1-year grace period) for up to US$10 million or UZS equivalent, to be mobilized from institutional investors (B Loan), and (iii) a cross-currency swap for the notional amount disbursed in USD (the "Project"). The purpose of the project is to support the Bank to expand its presence in the micro, small and medium enterprises ("MSME") segment, including a carve out for gender financing of up to 40% of the loan proceeds to be on-lend to women-owned enterprises ("WOEs").

Investment Description

- International Finance Corporation (IFC)

The proposed senior loan package consists of IFC's own account investment of up to US$10 million or UZS equivalent with a tenor of 3 years and a mobilization of up to US$10 million or UZS equivalent with a 3-year tenor.

Private Actors Description

The Bank was founded and is still owned by the Ubaev family (88.94%, with the key sponsor, Lutfulla Ubaev, holding 46.86%), his close relatives, the Mirzayatov family, particularly, by two nephews of Lutfulla Ubaev (13.56%), and business partners: the Khayrullaev family (11.06%). The ownership is direct, without using any offshore vehicles or nominal partners. The Bank's founders' history goes back to 1994 after the USSR collapsed. Mr. Lutfulla Ubaev, together with his family members and business partners, has developed successful catering and food processing businesses and in 2001 established the Bank, which soon became universal with a significant focus on servicing and crediting MSME and retail clients.
