Project Description

As stated by the IFC, Cobli is the IoT platform for connected fleets. The Company was founded in 2015 and offers vehicle telematics and video telematics to improve visibility and efficiency of operational fleets while increasing driver safety in Brazil.

IFC proposes to invest up to US$ 8 million as a convertible note as part of the Company's current fundraising round, with additional capital to be provided by current investors of the Company.

IFC anticipates that the Project would result in improved access to fleet management software for businesses, potentially resulting in improved productivity. The Project is also expected to contribute to climate mitigation through GHG emissions avoidance by optimizing routes for logistics fleet operations. Beyond the Project, this investment has the potential to increase competitiveness of the market for fleet management software in Brazil via competition and innovation channels.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: <https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries>

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
