Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the project envisages a proposed lending to HDFC Bank Limited (HDFC or the Bank), India's largest private sector bank and second largest bank overall. The proposed lending consists of a loan of up to US$500 million to support the Bank's lending to women borrowers for income generation purposes. The proceeds of the IFC loan will be used for on-lending to women borrowers as microloans under Self Help Group (SHGs) and Joint Liability Group (JLGs) enrolled in HDFC Bank's Sustainable Livelihoods Initiative (SLI), the Bank's business line responsible for microfinance lending program.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

The IFC loan will only support on-lending to HDFC Bank's microfinance borrowers. The IFC loan will not support higher risk activities that may include involuntary resettlement, risk of adverse impacts on indigenous peoples, significant risks to or impacts on the environment, community health and safety, biodiversity, cultural heritage, significant retrenchment, or significant occupational health and safety risks. The loan will also not support any coal-related activity. Hence, the E&S risks and impacts of the Project will be low and mostly relate to exposure to activities on the IFC Exclusion List. The Project is categorized as FI-3 according to IFC's Policy on Environmental and Social Sustainability. The applicable performance requirements will be the IFC- MFI Exclusion List.

Investment Description

- International Finance Corporation (IFC)

The proposed Project envisages a senior unsecured debt investment of up to US$500 million in HDFC Bank Limited.

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.
