Project Description

According to the IFC, the proposed investment consists of the issuance of an up to 10-year social bond (the “Social Bond”) for up to US$200 million in COP equivalent (eq. to c.COP800,000 million) by Promigas, with two majority-owned subsidiaries, Surtigas S.A. E.S.P. (“Surtigas”) and Gases de Occidente S.A. E.S.P. (“GdO”), as co-issuers (jointly with Promigas, the “Issuers”). The funds raised from the Social Bond will be used to support Brilla, the non-banking financing division of Promigas that provides consumer loans to the Issuers clients. These loans are facilitated through the gas distribution companies, including Surtigas and GdO. The Social Bond will be issued in Colombia’s Segundo Mercado.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

According to the IFC, the Project entails the issuance of a social bond by Promigas (the Company) to support Brilla's consumer credit portfolio targeting Promigas' clients in Colombia and has been classified as category FI-3 according to the IFC Sustainability Framework

Investment Description

- International Finance Corporation (IFC)

According to the IFC, the Project cost is estimated to be up to US$200 million equivalent in COP (c.COP 800,000 million). IFC intends to subscribe US$100 million in the Social Bond and mobilize other investors that subscribe the remaining US$100 million.

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.
