Project Description

According to the Bank's website, Helios Sports and Entertainment Group ("HSEG") is an investment platform designed to capitalize on Africa's unique demographic profile and global technological advancements by investing in companies and assets in the African sports and entertainment sector.

Early Warning System Project Analysis

The Project has been categorized as FI-2 in accordance with the IFC's Sustainability Policy. The proposed investment is in Helios Sports and Entertainment Group (HSEG), a company investing in sports, media, and entertainment companies in Africa. HSEG is sponsored by Helios Investment Partners, an alternative investment manager in Africa. The main E&S risks and potential impacts of the Project derive from the E&S risks associated with the Fund's investment activities, E&S capacity and system in place to manage these risks.

Investment Description

- International Finance Corporation (IFC)

The proposed project involves an equity investment of up to US$30 million from IFC's own account in the context of HSEG's fundraising worth US$75 million from third-party investors to execute on its strategy and invest in companies operating in the African sports and entertainment sector.

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.
