Private Actors Description

Bayport Botswana, a subsidiary of Bayport Management Ltd (BML), is a non-deposit-taking non-bank financial institution (NBFI) focused on microlending to salaried individuals, primarily civil servants, in Botswana. BML, which is registered in Mauritius, established Bayport Botswana in May 2010. The Company is licensed and regulated by the Non-Bank Financial Institutions Regulatory Authority (NBFIRA).

Bayport Botswana holds a leading position in the NBFI microlending sector. The proceeds from this Project will help scale the Company's lending operations, particularly to individuals, to meet their financing needs for health, education and informal businesses. The Company has about 25,000 customers of which about 46% are female, that it serves through its 17 branches and 3 satellite branches (call centers), countrywide. Bayport Botswana also has a staff of 134 permanent employees, and 340 consultants to support its customers.

Ownership: The Company's main shareholder is BML, a Mauritius registered holding company, with an ownership stake of 98.31%. This ownership structure is expected to change when Africa Lighthouse Capital's proposed acquisition of a 11.07% stake in Bayport Botswana is approved by the regulator.

BML was incorporated in Mauritius in 2005 as a private company. In March 2013, its shares were listed on the Stock exchange of Mauritius. BML is a holding company with stakes in NBFIs in Africa, South America, and the United Kingdom. The major shareholders of BML include the Government Employees Fund (GEPF), which owns 30.03% of the Company through its investments managed by the Public Investment Corporation (PIC). The second largest shareholder is Kinnevik New Ventures AB, holding 17.98%. Takwa Holdco Ltd owns 13.60%, while Firefly Investments 326 (Pty) Ltd, which is wholly owned by GEPF, holds 9.97%. Upperway Investments (Pty) Ltd has an 8.89% stake, and Grant Kurland holds 6.93%. BML provides support in managing regulatory and compliance requirements for the group entities as well as addressing funding/treasury needs. BML also has oversight responsibilities in ensuring that Bayport Botswana's operations meet the high standards of responsible corporate behavior in lending practices.
