Project Description

According to the IFC, the proposed investment consists of an investment of up to US$50 million equivalent in Colombian pesos (COP) in a biodiversity bond issuance by Banco Davivienda S.A (Davivienda or the Bank). The Colombian peso-denominated bond will be privately placed, and Davivienda will use the proceeds to finance projects for conserving, protecting, and restoring biodiversity and nature. In line with the IFC's Biodiversity Finance Reference Guide, and Colombia's Green Taxonomy, the projects that can be financed with the proceeds of the biodiversity bond include business activities related to the use of recycled material, climate-smart and regenerative agriculture, reforestation, companies with sustainable seals that certify their good environmental practices and include biodiversity considerations, sustainable freshwater and marine production, among others.

Investment Description

- International Finance Corporation (IFC)

According to the IFC, the proposed investment (the Project) consists of a 4-year senior unsecured biodiversity bond to be issued under a local private placement by Banco Davivienda S.A. (Davivienda or the Bank) of up to US$50 million equivalent in Colombian pesos (COP)

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: <https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries>

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
