Project Description

According to the bank website, Auna has invited IFC as part of a club deal with HSBC, Santander, Citi and other banks, to refinance Auna's US$400m Syndicated Term Loan and finance its growth (the "Project"). The proposed IFC investment consists of a senior under-secured A-loan with a 5-year tenor for up to MXN 1,500m (up to US$75m). The Company's growth strategy is focused primarily on acquiring existing operational hospitals within its three countries of operation.

Private Actors Description

According to the IFC, AUNA S.A. (<https://auna.org/mx>) (“Auna” or the “Company”) is a healthcare group that operates 31 private healthcare facilities across Mexico, Peru and Colombia, with a total of approximately 2,300 beds. It also offers oncology, dental and vision insurance plans in Peru and Mexico.

Auna currently manages stakeholder engagement, external communications, and grievance handling at the hospital level, guided by a corporate stakeholder’s framework. To strengthen systematic engagement between hospitals and neighboring communities, and in alignment with ESAP#4, Auna will reinforce the communication of the existing external grievance mechanism to surrounding communities, as needed.
