Private Actors Description

According to the IFC, Vinci Compass Colombia is the Colombian subsidiary of Vinci Compass, one of Latin America's largest asset managers created in 1995 and an existing IFC relationship. In November 2024, Vinci Partners Investments Ltd. and Compass Group Asset Management Holding SLU announced a business combination to create Vinci Compass. Vinci Compass has 30 years of asset management experience in the region, managing US$66 billion in assets as of March 2026, and is majority owned by Gilberto Sayao and Alessandro Horta, the original founders of Vinci. Vinci Compass is a publicly traded company since January 2021 on the NASDAQ stock exchange.

COPCO I will invest primarily in senior secured structured debt denominated in Colombian pesos to middle-market corporates, including financing for growth and expansion plans, capex, refinancing and liability reprofiling (Target Assets).

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at http://www.cao-ombudsman.org
