Project Description

According to the IFC, the proposed investment consists of an up to US$200 million Basel II-compliant Tier 2 subordinated financing package to Banco BBVA Peru (BBVA Peru or the Bank), the second-largest bank in Peru and long-term strategic partner of IFC. The financing aims to strengthen the Bank's green mortgage portfolio and strengthen the Bank's regulatory capital base to support its growth (the Project).

Investment Description

- International Finance Corporation (IFC)

Financial Intermediary

Financial Intermediary: A commercial bank or financial institution that receives funds from a development bank. A financial intermediary then lends these funds to their clients (private actors) in the form of loans, bonds, guarantees and equity shares. Financial intermediaries include insurance, pension and equity funds. The direct financial relationship is between the development bank and the financial intermediary.

- BANCO BBVA PERU SA (Financial Intermediary)

Private Actors Description

According to the IFC, BBVA Peru is a regulated Peruvian bank and the second-largest financial institution in the country, with 22.0% market share in loans and 20.8% in deposits. The Bank serves more than 9.5 million customers and has a 75-year track record in Peru's banking sector. It operates as a universal bank, serving retail, MSME, and corporate clients. The Bank's main shareholders are BBVA Peru Holding S.A.C. (BBVA Group or the Group) and Holding Continental S.A. (Grupo Breca), each holding 47.13% ownership.

BBVA Group ranks as the 13th largest European bank by assets and is a long-standing partner of the IFC and World Bank Group, particularly in Latin America and Turkiye.

Grupo Breca, a conglomerate with over 130 years of history, oversees material operations across financial services, mining, healthcare, and real estate, with a strong focus on Peru and selective regional exposure.

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at http://www.cao-ombudsman.org
