Project Description

According to the bank website, the client aims to advance financial access for the un(der)served last mile by helping rural financial institutions develop low cost and high availability fintech solutions. The Advisory Service project intends to support the Client to pilot a digital agri-lending solution in a selected rural commercial bank in China. The digital agri-lending solution combines financial technologies with agricultural data analytics and IFC agri-lending scoring methodologies to help lower costs and improve efficiency and objectivity of the decision process for providing financial services and enhancing financial inclusion in rural China.

Contact Information

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: <https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries>

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
