Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the objective of this project is to support the Government of Egypt (GoE) in improving regulatory requirements and building control procedures by implementing a streamlined, integrated and transparent permitting process that reduces the compliance burden for the private sector.

Based on discussions with the GoE, the project is envisioned to support the following components of the construction regulatory system by supporting the necessary legal, regulatory, and institutional improvements, and by piloting implementation support in selected district(s) in Cairo which will be identified in agreement with the relevant counterparts.

- a. Support the setup of a leadership and coordination mechanism to design and coordinate reform implementation.
- b. Streamline the pre-approval process before a construction permit is issued
- c. Private sector involvement in building control

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: <https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries>

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
