Project Description

The project aims to support the development of specific market mechanisms that promote and assist firms in the financial and real sectors in adopting better ESG practices through the following three components:

- 1) Regulatory: Supporting the integration of ESG standards into codes and regulations. The project aims to strengthen the ESG regulatory environment by developing and adapting laws, regulations, codes, and policies, including both mandatory and voluntary ones, to guide the market, level the playing field, and boost investor confidence.
- 2) Market demand and capacity: Building market demand and local capacity to support improved ESG practices. The project will build the capacity of partners to promote, train, and advise on ESG standards, sustainable finance, and women in leadership positions. These partners will develop ESG service offerings aligned with IFC methodologies.
- 3) Firms and financial institutions uptake: Providing hands-on support to firms on implementing ESG practices. The project will provide hands-on support to firms in implementing ESG practices, applying selectivity and prioritization principles to maximize benefits. This will help firms and financial institutions adopt better ESG practices in a targeted and effective way.

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
