Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, the project will complete the development, customization, and pilot of IFC’s READ (Real Estate Assessment of Developers) and ASHA (Affordable Socially sustainable Housing Application) housing tools, while also develop each tool’s capacity-building curriculum. This project will implement short-term client-facing advisory in the form of deployment of the READ and ASHA Assessment tools and targeted capacity building. The project will also include knowledge management and market analysis activities.

People Affected By This Project

The project will increase the proficiency of affordable housing developers in key markets where there is lack of affordable and socially sustainable housing. Capacity gaps of housing developers will be identified and addressed to enable them to create more sustainable and bankable projects that are aligned with international good practices.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at http://www.cao-ombudsman.org
