Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, the project will provide advisory support based on key areas of gender inequality in the law identified as regulatory constraints to women's economic participation. Preliminary diagnostic of Rwanda’s legal framework points to opportunities for reform. The project will focus on reforming laws in three aspects of women's economic lives. The project will explore conducting an analysis of government data collection systems to assess and recommend improvements to gender disaggregated data subject to buy-in by the government.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at http://www.cao-ombudsman.org
