Project Description

According to the Bank's website, IFC will provide support to National Bank of Ethiopia (NBE) and other key stakeholders to strengthen the operations of the NBE credit bureau and the capacity of key stakeholders in credit reporting. In addition., the Project will work with stakeholders including private credit bureaus and, SME business solutions providers, Fintechs and data analytics companies to map, test and promote the usage and adoption of various alternative data sources for creditworthiness assessments of Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises (MSMEs), refugees and particularly underserved individuals and enterprises. As a result, it is expected that the project will achieve an increase in credit bureau coverage of the adult population by at least 10% and the increased availability of finance to consumers and Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises as a result of the availability of credit scores based on alternative data.

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
