Project Description

As stated by the IFC, the primary goal of this three-year project is to drive adoption of good agricultural practices and increase the number of farmers growing coffee among smallholder farmers in the Eastern Highlands of Zimbabwe. This reviving origins project will seek to increase the number of farmers growing coffee in the region. The project will also focus on strengthening the capacity of the Zimbabwe Coffee Mill an anchor aggregator and the main gateway for Zimbabwe's coffee export.

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
