Project Description

According to the bank's website, the project seeks to support a feasibility study that aimed at providing "relevant strategic and technical analysis to Finvivor on the Asian microfinance market". Specifically, the project hopes to "provide an overview of the Asian microfinance market and opportunities including market size, market segments, competitor analysis and applicable regulatory guidelines, focus on the microfinance opportunities in two Asian countries (to be mutually identified by Finvivor and IFC) including market size, key players, DFS considerations, profile of potential clients and potential local partners, pinpoint potential operating partners for Finvivor to support its entry into one of the two selected Asian countries, and outline the potential costs for starting operations in key countries including minimum capital requirements to consider".

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: <https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries>

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
