Project Description

According to the Bank's website, this umbrella client/sponsor development project will focus on three leading coconut kernel exporters from Sri Lanka and IFC will provide advisory upstream services to support an increase in the volume of coconuts supplied to processing factories. The overarching objective is to develop best practices in the production and sourcing of coconuts in all formats of farming found in the supply chain (smallholder family operated, mid-sized coconut estates which are contract managed farms, and plantations) with these three clients.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: <https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries>

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
