Project Description

As stated by the IFC, the Program aims to deliver comprehensive support to clients by harnessing the collective expertise, tools, and knowledge from various practice groups within IFC, focusing on areas such as SME, Risk Management, Microfinance, Housing, Digital Finance, sustainable energy finance, and Banking on Women, among other relevant domains.

Through this regional Program, IFC will proactively address the evolving needs of FIG clients in Central Asia and Turkey. IFC approach involves conducting thorough assessments, designing tailored projects, and providing diagnostics and strategic advisory engagements.

The potential engagements will be custom-tailored to precisely reflect the specific needs of individual clients.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: <https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries>

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
