Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, the project consists of providing support to institutions to implement better procedures and disseminating information to the financial sector.
The program covers the following 3 activities to advance climate finance and build the capacity of the local banks in the CAT region:

Activity 1: Business development, market scoping and sector studies in target countries to enable banks/FIs to understand the need for capacity building (such as climate/green finance, enhancing ESG framework, etc.) in order to capture the opportunity.

Activity 2: Undertake an assessment of banks/FIs that would lead to identifying 3-4 potential banks/FIs for improving climate finance flows.

Activity 3: Promoting climate/green finance strategies and products in the CAT region. Support regulatory authorities and the private sector through workshops and public awareness in the introduction of green financial products and other instruments (green bonds/ green taxonomy).

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at http://www.cao-ombudsman.org
