Project Description

According to IFC, the proposed project will help Nephroplus assess its poverty and gender reach among its patient population, and develop an inclusive digital health strategy that extends access to health services to the underserved, including individuals at the base of the pyramid and women. This is part of IFC's efforts to work with the private sector to expand access to goods, services and opportunities among the underserved, including individuals at the base of the pyramid and women. This project will also develop knowledge and tools to allow work to be replicated with other IFC clients to expand their focus on the underserved and feed into broader development of IFC's approach to inclusive digital health.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at http://www.cao-ombudsman.org
