Project Description

The objective of the Project is to operationalize WRF in Uganda under the UW RSA system and thereby increase access to finance in the agricultural sector

By completion, the project will:

- a) Support UW RSA to further strengthen the enabling environment and license at least 2 warehouse operators;
- b) Facilitate WRF pilot arrangements by convening partnerships involving actors with high levels of readiness, including financial institutions, select farmer coops/organizations, grain traders, and collateral managers;
- c) Improve producer organization financial literacy, business management skills and readiness for WRF;
- d) Support financial sector readiness for piloting WRF through market-level actions;
- e) Identify scale-up opportunities for partner FIs which may be supported by IFC credit lines or risk-sharing instruments going forward.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: <https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries>

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
