Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the project will work with IIBF as the primary partner over a period of 18 months, on the following components:

- Component 1: Green finance content development and conducting training for FIs to accelerate the understanding and awareness of climate finance.
- Component 2: Knowledge generation activities and convening stakeholders, to address the knowledge gap on climate finance with specific focus on climate risk and opportunities.

The Project partners with Indian Institute of Banking & Finance (IIBF) to build knowledge and create awareness about green finance for FIs (Banks and NBFCs) in the country. Activities include: (i) Creation of green finance trainings modules to support and strengthen the knowledge and capacity and awareness of FIs on green finance. (ii) Conduct research & analysis and convene stakeholder workshops/conferences, to work towards a better understanding of climate risk assessment framework. By the end of the implementation period, the project aims to increase the capacity of FI staff on climate finance.
