Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the objective of the Comoros Leasing project is to, at the market level, raise awareness of leasing as an effective financing tool and, at the client level, stimulate FIs to begin using leasing products as a means to facilitate access to finance for micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs).

IFC will build awareness of leasing across key stakeholders in the country through workshops and/or other communication mechanisms, and support 1 or 2 financial institutions to develop and pilot leasing transactions.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: <https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries>

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
