Project Description

According to the Bank's website, this project is designed to support the implementation of Ghana's Corporate Insolvency & Restructuring Act, 2022, aiming to strengthen the country's legal and regulatory framework for business recovery and insolvency resolution. The initiative will involve technical assistance and advisory support to the Insolvency Service Division (ISD) of the Office of the Registrar of Companies (ORC), Ghana Association of Restructuring and Insolvency Advisors (GARIA), and the commercial division of the High Court of Ghana. It will also encompass preliminary work for the operationalization of a robust framework to manage non-performing loans (NPLs), including diagnostics and stakeholder coordination. Furthermore, the project will include capacity building and awareness-creation activities to ensure a comprehensive approach to enhancing the insolvency resolution process for the private sector in Ghana.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
