Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the goal of this project is to enhance the efficiency of the upstream and downstream supply chain of ETG in Tanzania and improve its input sales. This will be done by enhancing the in-house trainer capacity of ETG who will then build the capacity of select intermediaries which support ETG's inputs distribution system and/or manage crop aggregation for ETG. This project is being implemented in partnership with the Government of Canada through the Facility for Resilient Food Systems (FRFS) as well as the Global Agriculture and Food Security Program (GAFSP) - a multilateral partnership and financing platform dedicated to improving food and nutrition security in the world's poorest countries.

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
