Project Description

According to the Bank's website, the project will operate at the global level, specifically (i) to support improvement in sustainable finance frameworks by providing in-depth technical advice; (ii) to build capacity of financial sector regulators and industry associations to guide policy development and enable implementation; (iii) to develop frameworks, systems and reports to measure SBFN members' progress on sustainable finance in a consistent manner.

The objective of this project is to increase the adoption and implementation of sustainable finance frameworks across emerging markets and developing economies (EMDEs). This will be accomplished by engaging financial sector regulators and industry associations to foster a predictable and enabling regulatory environment that supports the growth and scaling up of private sector participation and sustainable investment, in alignment with international good practices.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

You can submit a request for information disclosure at: <https://disclosures.ifc.org/#/inquiries>

If you believe that your request for information from IFC has been unreasonably denied, or that this Policy has been interpreted incorrectly, you can submit a complaint at the link above to IFC's Access to Information Policy Advisor, who reports directly to IFC's Executive Vice President.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at <http://www.cao-ombudsman.org>
