Project Description

Accordign to the IFC disclosure statement, this initiative, in collaboration with NSIA Banque in Benin and Cote d'Ivoire, focuses on enhancing the Banking on Women (BOW) segment. The project comprises two main components: (1) Strategy, Organization, and Product Offering, which includes developing gender-intelligent banking practices, conducting market assessments, and aligning organizational policies; and (2) Customer Value Proposition (CVP), which involves designing and launching financial products and services tailored to women entrepreneurs. Additional activities include staff training, facilitating gender equality certifications, and monitoring progress to ensure measurable outcomes. The project aims to increase access to finance for women-owned businesses, supporting inclusive economic growth and gender equality.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF IFC/MIGA

The Compliance Advisor Ombudsman (CAO) is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by an IFC or MIGA- financed project. If you submit a complaint to the CAO, they may assist you in resolving a dispute with the company and/or investigate to assess whether the IFC is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. If you want to submit a complaint electronically, you can email the CAO at CAO@worldbankgroup.org You can learn more about the CAO and how to file a complaint at http://www.cao-ombudsman.org
