Project Description

According to the Bank’s website, IFC is entering a collaboration with Azerbaijan Uzbek Investment Company (AUIC) to support the development of a greenfield, 100-bed general hospital in Tashkent, Uzbekistan. The hospital will provide a fully integrated continuum of services, from prevention, emergency care, and surgery to rehabilitation, positioning it as a distinctive, high-acuity offering in the Tashkent market. IFC's support under this engagement includes cost-sharing of a comprehensive feasibility study encompassing market, technical, financial, regulatory, and environmental and social assessments, as well as a bankability review to structure the project to international lender and investor requirements.
