Project Description

The Project is anticipated to be part of the first Independent Power Producers in the country and will bring much-needed clean power to Burkina Faso . As such, it has the potential to demonstrate the viability of solar PV technology and private investment in the country's power sector, while strengthening the regulatory environment for IPPs. Moreover, the Project has the potential to diversify Burkina Faso's energy mix, decrease its dependency on expensive and less environmentally friendly fossil fuels, and generate cost savings to consumers and the government. Support for the Project aligns with MIGA's strategic focus on International Development Association ("IDA") member countries, fragility and conflict-affected countries, and projects with climate benefits.
