Project Description

According to the Bank's website, this project responded to a request made by the Government of Cameroon to IDA and the Caisse Centrale de Cooperation Economique (CCCE) for technical and financial assistance to implement a program of promotion of Small and Medium Scale Cameroonian Enterprises. The project was designed as a Pilot Project aimed at promoting the establishment and expansion of privately owned Cameroonian small and medium scale enterprises. In addition to supporting productive investments, the project was to enhance the role of Banque Camerounaise de Developpement (BCD) as an effective development institution, improve and coordinate technical assistance to SMEs, and provide information, both to Government and IDA on ways to improve policies and programs for SME promotion.
