Project Description

The objective of the Additional Financing for the Rural Community Development and Water Mobilization Project for Djibouti is to increase access of rural communities to water and enhance their capacity to manage water and agro-pastoral resources in the project areas using a participatory approach to community-based development. The expected outcome under AF are consistent with the original project and includes: (i) an increase of 1000 rural households that will have access to drinking water within a reasonable travel time (two hours round trip); (ii) an increase of 15,500 heads of livestock with access to water within a reasonable distance (20 km radius); (iii) an increase in the available grazing biomass in the targeted rangelands; and (iv) the creation and/or reinforcement of 30 additional community structures and/or organizations.

Accountability Mechanism of the World Bank

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at: <http://ewebapps.worldbank.org/apps/ip/Pages/Home.aspx>.
