Project Description

ALLFISH is a partnership between the seafood industry, represented by the International Coalition of Fisheries Associations (ICFA), the World Bank, the Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) and the Global Environment Facility (GEF).

The International Coalition of Fisheries Associations is a non-governmental organization comprised of national fishing and seafood industry associations mainly from OECD countries. ICFA encourages membership by seafood and fishing industry associations from developing countries. Members meet annually to plan participation in global and regional fisheries policy forums and advance coordinated positions designed to provide practical, implementable business solutions and approaches to sustainable fisheries.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at: http://ewebapps.worldbank.org/apps/ip/Pages/Home.aspx.
