Project Description

According to the bank document, "the proposed grant is for local institutions and traditional land-use practices to support the improvements of livelihood options of Indigenous Dayak communities in Central Kalimantan.

This will be achieved through strengthening local communities; district and province level customary organizations to support traditional economic activities on customary land, develop village level institutions and pilot testing local livelihoods approaches."

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. Information on how to file a complaint and a complaint request form are available at: <https://www.inspectionpanel.org/how-to-file-complaint>
