Project Description

The stated objective of the project is "to build the capacity of targeted civil society and local communities in Latin America and the Caribbean to enhance their knowledge and understanding of REDD+, thereby allowing them to expand and enhance their participation in REDD+ processes at the national level."

The project has the following components:

Component 1: Capacity Building Activities

Component 2: Regional-Level Communication and Dissemination of Project Results

Investment Description

- World Bank (WB)

The project will be financed by a SRETF grant from the FCPF, to be implemented over a period of 24 months in 2016-2018. The grant will be governed by the World Bank's 'procedures for small recipient-executed trust fund grants', which specify the process for the design and implementation of small grants.

ACCOUNTABILITY MECHANISM OF WORLD BANK

The World Bank Inspection Panel is the independent complaint mechanism and fact-finding body for people who believe they are likely to be, or have been, adversely affected by a World Bank-financed project. If you submit a complaint to the Inspection Panel, they may investigate to assess whether the World Bank is following its own policies and procedures for preventing harm to people or the environment. You can contact the Inspection Panel or submit a complaint by emailing ipanel@worldbank.org. You can learn more about the Inspection Panel and how to file a complaint at: http://ewebapps.worldbank.org/apps/ip/Pages/Home.aspx.
